PER CAPITA-OCCUPATION

In accordance with the act of August 9, 1955 (P.L. 323, No. 130), known as the County Code and the Consolidated County Assessment Law, the county commissioners in counties of the fourth through eighth classes may by resolution levy a tax on trades, occupations, professions, and persons who follow no occupation or calling.

The Assessment Office requests your cooperation in maintaining accurate Per Capita and Occupation records. Please complete the following information for you and anyone over the age of 18 residing at this address. Return to the Clarion County Office of Assessment at 421 Main Street Clarion, PA 16214.

It is your responsibility to notify our office in writing of any changes to your occupation or residency. All changes will be effective for the following year after notification of change is received.
